Notes to help you prepare a parade entry

- There is no fee to enter the parade. In keeping with the theme of the National Cowboy Symposium and the Parade of the Horse all entries MUST PERTAIN to equines in some way. No motorized vehicles will be allowed in the parade as an entry. Horses, mules, miniature horses, ponies and draft horses are welcome whether ridden, driven, or led. Please see that your stock is in good shape and can keep up the pace for the entire parade (approx. 2 miles). All horses participating must have current Coggins papers, and random checks may be conducted prior to the start of the parade.
- Entries are welcome the day of the parade; however, please note that at the discretion of the National Cowboy Symposium, pre-entries may receive some item of appreciation for entering. Pre-entries are due by August 31, 2019 to LaDonna Mild, Parade Chair, P.O. Box 876, Shallowater, Texas 79363. Questions? – Email: amildbug@outlook.com
- Please visit our web site at www.westtexasdrifters.org for information about the members, meetings, activities, and horse services.
- We have been asked to use the parking lots south and southeast of the Mahon Library for parking trucks and trailers. Please do not park in other Civic Center parking lots. Please keep horses off of the grass around the Mahon Library.
- The entry numbers will be handed out after 9:00 a.m. when you check in at parade assembly area near the starting location of 10th Street and Avenue L. Please obtain your entry and display the parade position number clearly on the LEFT-hand side of the main vehicle or lead rider.
- Please have your entry ready to participate at 9:45 a.m. The Parade Begins 10:00 A.M.
- Drivers of horse drawn vehicles must be at least 16 years of age and have an adult as a co-driver in the vehicle. Each wagon or wheeled vehicle may designate outriders on horseback or escorts on foot to assist with the entry. Outriders must be at least 16 years old.
- One person per saddle and no belting or tying of a rider to saddle. Junior riding groups must have at least one adult riding with the group.
- Please NO candy or other items are to be thrown from parade entries.
- The Parade Chair is the decision maker on all entries. The Parade Chair reserves the right to dismiss any persons, animals or vehicles that pose a danger to themselves or others. Refusal to follow parade rules will lead to dismissal from parade.
- The announcer's stand will READ FROM YOUR ENTRY – so please provide a description of the people, equines, and/or dress. This is your time to SHINE!
- AWARDS will be given at around NOON at the outdoor stage – near the chuck wagon area. Please join the fun at the stage and CONGRATULATE the winners.
- THANK YOU FOR ENTERING THE PARADE. This event is a success because of your participation and we are glad you joined us!
